About Us

About ACPI

Founded in December 2004, the Association of Chinese Professionals in Ireland (ACPI) is a non-for-profit organisation which connects Chinese professionals, scholars and specialists of different disciplines in Ireland. ACPI currently has more than 300 members in Ireland, with the aim of supporting and assisting Chinese professionals in Ireland in gaining recognition, cultural integration, career advancement and civic engagement. ACPI organises regular events including business forums, career development seminars information exchange on visa, policies, business, cultural, arts, and social networking amongst other relevant activities and missions.

About FCPAE

The Federation of Chinese Professional Associations in Europe (FCPAE) is composed of 62 associations of Chinese professionals in over a dozen European countries and encompasses more than 20,000 Chinese professionals working in various areas in Europe.

About 11th FCPAE Europe Forum

We are expecting more than 300 representatives from various organisations, businesses and government bodies across Europe and China to attend the forum.

The proposed theme of this conference is: Innovation, Diversity, Cooperation. The year of 2019 is a special year. It is the 70th anniversary of founding of the People's Republic of China and the 40th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between China and Ireland, it is also the 15th anniversary of APCI. We hope to take the opportunity of the 11th "FCPAE European Forum" to promote mutual understanding between Europe and China and the unique characteristics that Europe and Ireland in particular can bring to the world.
